EXPLORING POSITIVE PSYCHOLOGICAL CAPACITY IN TEAMWORK

Presented by

L.J. MCELRAVY
Assistant Professor of Youth Civic Leadership, University of Nebraska–Lincoln

Fall 2018 Agronomy and Horticulture Seminar Series

Positive Psychological Capacity (PsyCap) is a developmental characteristic that is related to a number of positive outcomes in the workplace. McElravy will explore how PsyCap can be used to enhance teamwork, specifically in the work environment and in the classroom.

FRIDAY
September 7
3:30 pm
Refreshments served at 3pm
Room 150, Keim Hall, East Campus
University of Nebraska–Lincoln

LIVE STREAMING
go.unl.edu/agrohortseminars