

Guidelines for NSTA Upperclassman Scholarship

Students applying for the Nebraska Seed Trade Association Upperclassman Scholarship shall have sophomore class standing or above at University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Candidates shall be pursuing any degree program in the Department of Agronomy and Horticulture, College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, or Institute Of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

This scholarship will be for $1000. Candidates shall have expressed a career interest in the area of seed industry, crop production, seed technology, or plant breeding following graduation from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Application deadline is April 1.

APPLICATION

Name _____

Date of birth (month/day/year) _____

Daytime telephone _____

Home telephone _____

Email address _____

Current mailing address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Please submit a one page essay of your future goals for education and career endeavors. Please describe your background and why you are the best choice to receive this scholarship. Please attach a copy of your transcripts.

Mail applications to:

Nebraska Seed Trade Association
267 Plant Science Hall
P.O. Box 830911
Lincoln, NE 68583-0911
402-472-1444